

Ministry Opportunities

URGENT needs exist in the National Office of International Teams Australia, located in Northmead, Sydney.

Finance Department – Two days per week

A person with an accounting background and supervisory and administrative skills, and an ability to provide oversight of all financial systems is required. Some remuneration is available for this role.

Personal Assistant to Senior Staff – Full Time

A person with solid administrative skills and initiative is required to provide assistance to a senior staff member. A good knowledge of all Microsoft office programs is important. Some remuneration is available for this role.

Missionary Advisor – Full Time

A person is required with a heart for mission to journey with individuals from enquiry and throughout their life of the missionary. Some experience in pastoring and/or mission work preferred. This is a volunteer position.

All applicants are required to complete application and orientation process.

International Teams is a missions agency which seeks to be involved in exciting and innovative ways of demonstrating and proclaiming the gospel around the world. Over the last five years International Teams has grown in the number of missionaries on the field and demands on our financial services.

For enquires and further information, please contact the Office Manager, Sally Jones on (02) 9890 2244 or at sally.jones@iteams.org.